NAZI WAR CRIMES DISCLOSURE ACT
DATE 2007

1. The five man Willow Team was dispatched to Northern LCFLAKE on 11 October for expected infiltration into KMWAHOO o/a 13 October. The present plans call for Willow Tree to service the dead-letter drops and return to LCFLAKE within 4 weeks. Upon completion of this mission, Willow will not attempt another infiltration into KMWAHOO for the remainder of the 1952 operational season. If the situation warrants use of Willow during the winter months, they will be on hand and ready for any new assignment.

2. All contacts used by Willow will continue to operate during the winter months. As yet no definite plan has been formulated to gather what BGHIVE and BGFLUME material is collected by the net during this period.

3. Composition of the Willow Team remains as of the first reference.

4. Mission:

Willow Team's general mission remains unchanged. The following additions have been made to paragraph 3 of second reference:

a. Recheck on information furnished in last debriefing regarding the number of persons who can be called upon in the event of an uprising, the type and number of arms and amount of ammunition on hand, and availability of safe storage facilities for additional arms, ammunition, food, medicine, etc.

b. Attempt to bring out all information regarding the FJSTEAL Colonel reported in part II of second reference.

5. Team Briefing:

A general area briefing was given to Willow, and all information concerning border crossings discussed. Willow Tree was not informed of Fig's presence in the same general area.

6. Remarks:

Willow Tree was processed in LCDRINK for infiltration with a minimum of work. Willow has proven to be very cooperative and sincere in all of the work with the local training staff. It is strongly hoped by this office that the long winter lay off will not in any way hinder future performances.
